Random News

The NFL was forced to move the Monday Night Football game between the Chiefs and Rams. The game was scheduled to be played as part of the NFL's International Series in Mexico City. The decision was made to move the game to the LA Coliseum after significant damage to the playing field at Mexico City's Estadio Azteca was unable to be repaired in time for the game. The majority of the damage happened during an October Shakira concert.

Bills cut Tyrel Pryor after two games. Pryor signed 1 year deal on October 20th.

Le'Veon Bell declines franchise tag from Steelers, will not play this year.

Division III Earlham College has cancelled its 2019 football season. The school has lost a record 53 straight games. Their last win was in October 2013. The school may restart the program for the 2020 season, but only if they feel the school has the ability to be competitive.
